County of York,

1558-1724.

EDITED BY

W. J. STAVERT, M.A., F.S.A.,

PRIVATELY PRINTED FOR THE YORKSHIRE PARISH REGISTER SOCIETY.

KNIGHT AND FORSTER, PRINTERS, LEEDS.

PREFACE.

This volume is a literal transcript of two manuscript books which contain the earliest portion of the Register of Bolton-by-Bolland. The original is written on parchment, and is legible throughout; but the older book has no cover, and both might be improved by being carefully bound.

"A" has 76 leaves (14in. × 12¾in.), and deals with the period 27th April, 1558—9th October, 1653. There are blank pages on fol. 72 v., 73 r., 74 r. and 75 r. Various memoranda will be found at pages 1, 150 and 152, including a terrier of the glebe lands, &c.

"B" has 83 leaves (13½in. × 7¼in.), and continues the record to 14th March, 1724-5. There are blank pages on fol. 50 v. and 52 r. This book is rich in notes of various character (see pages 216, 224, 229, 253 and 254), the principal ones relating to the arrangement of the seats in church, to an assessment for the payment of the salary to the parish clerk, and to a terrier of the lands and tenements pertaining to the rectory.

The Society and the Editor are alike under an obligation to the Reverend J. A. Wilson, M.A., Rector of Bolton-by-Bolland and Honorary Canon of Ripon, for giving to them a most ready permission to copy these books and every facility which could possibly make the work easier.
